Everything of Local Form To be Found That is of Interest.

MONDAY.

Ed. Thilenius and his son came down from Perryville yesterday to visit relatives. Ed Thilenius is a brother of Col G. H. Thilenius of this city.

Editor Allen of the Lutesville Banner was in the city Saturday and gave us a call.

Stay that barking by using Ballard Horehound Syrup. It arrest the cough, allays irritation of the throat, and relieves congestion of the lungs in a day. It is safe and pleasant to take, and never disappoints.

50 cents. I. Ben. Miller. 25nd The well at the brewery is now down to a depth of a little over 100 feet. Mr. Wilson, who is putting down the well, and is an old hand at the business, says this is the hardest job of the kind he ever tackled. Cape Girardeau must rest upon a very solid and safe foundation.

Excursion to Cairo next Sunday on the City of Warsaw. Fare one dollar for round trip.

Small precautions often prevent great mischiefs. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very small pills in size, but are most effective in preventing the most serious forms of liver and stomach troubles. They cure constipation and headache and regulate the bowels. Wm. H. Coerver.

Sam Jones once said: "The most beautiful sight in the world is to see a family gathered around a hearthstone with the head of the household reading his local paper—paid for in advance."

Globe-Democrat: A Pennsylvania man has patented a form of jug that allows its contents to flow out quietly, without any sound of gurgling. The handle is hollow and so, it may be remarked, is the idea. The gurgling of a canteen just filled with spring water is certainly musical. The word "gurgling" itself is rarely descriptive and pleasing. Somebody will be trying next to patent noiseless breezes and put rubber tires on the chariot of the winds. Pray let the brooks and the jugs gurgle on, good apothecary.

If you are bilious, try Dr. Sawyer Little Wide Awake Pills, you will find them just what you want. Tre sample. They do not gripe. Sold at M. Maple Willson's drug store.

W. S. Hamilton and wife came down from St. Louis on the excursion yesterday and took dinner with relatives. Remember the excursion next Sunday to Cairo. A pleasant trip at a low price.

Uriah Jones, Ezekiah Brown and John Peter Smith will testify to the wonderful curative properties of Dr. Simmons' Cough Syrup. Sample bottles free. Satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by all druggists.

A couple of negro women are reported as having an encounter in Haarig Saturday night during which one of them was seriously carved with a knife. It was rumored this morning that she was dead, but this must be a mistake as she was able yesterday afternoon to walk out to her home about five miles in the country.

Three or four hundred members of the Forester's League came down yesterday over the Illinois Central and spent the afternoon here. Many in the party were former residents of the Cape and they spent a pleasant time with their old friends and relatives.

You should not miss the fun at Cairo on next Sunday. A large party will go down from here and you should make it a point to be in the crowd.

It has been suggested that one reason we have had so much rain lately is because the town cannot not afford to run a street sprinkler. Fortunately we have not needed one yet.

A force of the street men were engaged this morning opening the sewer at Main and Themis streets. The mud and trash flowing in had stopped up the mouth of the sewer.

Are you lacking in strength and energy. Are you nervous, despondent, irritable, bilious, constipated and generally run down in health. If so, your liver is torpid, and, and a few doses of Herbine will cure you. Herbine has no equal as a health restorer. I. Ben Miller.

Paul Benninghoven, the young dwarf who represents the Westliche Post in this section, went over to Jackson today.

Officer Kain, who handles fruit and vegetables in his spare moments, left some delicious cantaloupes at this office yesterday. Mr. Kain has arranged so he can furnish this fruit to customers on Tuesdays and Saturdays during the season.

WANTED—15 teams, 15 factory men. 50 bolt cutters. Steady work. Apply at Ardila Stave Co., Ardila, Mo.

KIDNEY DISEASES are the most fatal of all diseases. Foley's Kidney Cure is a guaranteed remedy or money refunded.

The jug man was in the city this morning supplying the dispensers of bug juice with jugs.

A Fourth of July celebration and picnic is announced to take place at Hanebrink's barn. According to the bills, Hon. Lafayette Caruthers of Cape Girardeau, and Hon. Chas. Daves of St. Louis will be present to address the people. There will be a display of fire works at night.

Certainly you don't want to suffer with dyspepsia, constipation, sick headache, sallow skin and loss of appetite. You have never tried DeWitt's Little Early Risers for these complaints or you would have been cured. They are small pills but great regulators. Wm. H. Coerver.

THURSDAY.

There is a rumor on the streets that a young married man of this city has skipped out and left his wife.

Remember that "Cairo pays the bills" and that the show down there next Sunday won't cost you anything.

George Rodenmayer of Dutebown who was in the city this morning says wheat that is well shocked is not yet damaged by the rain to any great extent. We are all glad to hear this.

Judge Frank E. Burroughs has moved his office into the railroad building offices on Main street. Now if the railroad had a newspaper they could get the earth for the asking.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by I. Ben Miller.

You cannot spend Sunday any more profitably than by joining that excursion party to Cairo on the steamer City of Warsaw.

The farmers of the county have been very blue for some time, and their long faces is a very good indication of how they feel. It is certainly anything but pleasant for a man to work hard for several months, have the fruits of his labor almost within his grasp and then see them swept away by some power he cannot control. The farmer deserves sincere condolence.

One would imagine that the continued wet weather would have caused much sickness, but the general health of the people of the community is excellent.

E. F. Blomeyer is in Kansas City. He is not there arranging for a seat in the Democratic convention but is looking after railroad business.

Fred Ruessler, the Broadway baker, has secured the services of a first-class baker from St. Louis and is now prepared to furnish his customers with the best of everything. A trial order will convince you that his bread and cakes have no equal in the city.

The Gordonville people will have a Fourth of July celebration at Siemers Park. Refreshments, dancing, speaking, etc.

FRIDAY.

Cheatham's Chill Tonic is peculiarly adapted to persons in feeble health and invalids. It assists digestion and is a perfect strengthener and appetizer. Satisfaction or money refunded. Put up in both tasteful and bitter styles. 50-cent size.

There will be a good dance floor under a roof, good music and all kinds of refreshments at the Rock Levee basket picnic July 4th.

It looks just a trifle off color to read in one of the city papers that all of the members of that committee were present at Poplar Bluff the other day except the chairman, who lives in Cape Girardeau County. The meeting must have been a good deal like a wedding with the bride absent.

Father Kline of Kelso is in the city.

Eq. Brown, the weather prophet of Egypt Mills is in town today.

The City of Paducah passed up for St. Louis shortly after noon loaded to the guards as usual.

Mrs. W. H. Medley who has been quite ill for several weeks was taken to the hospital this afternoon.

The recent rains have caused a pool to form at the foot of Independence street where that street strikes the new railroad dump. An odor emanates from this place similar to that which is said to proceed from a salivated cheese factory, and the city would do well to look into the matter and see what can be done with it. A little filling will not only obviate the trouble but it will give the city a good street.

The scorching weather has come upon us without any notification, and the people are sweltering. This is an improvement however on the rain.
